What Is Their History?

The Military Police Corps is one of the youngest branches of the Army. It was established on 26 September 1941. Its traditions of duty and service, however, are unsurpassed in our armed services. Soldiers have been performing police duties from the time of the Revolutionary War, when these duties were assigned mainly to a mounted police force. Soldiers serving as the Veteran's Reserve Corps and Provost Corps performed military police duties during the Civil War. MPs served with distinction in the Spanish American War, WWI, WWII, the Korean Conflict, and in Vietnam. As a result of hard work and distinguished service, the Military Police Corps was designated a combat support arm and service of the Army on 14 October 1968.
